CIRCULATION NOTE.

Subject: Superannuation of Jenab K. Shamsuddin Khan,
Superintendent of Sericulture.

Jenab K. Shamsuddin Khan attains the age of superannuation on 15th December 1949. He has been the Superintendent since 1st July 1947.

The confidential report on the character and work of this officer, from the beginning of his service, are uniformly good.

He was appointed Sericultural Probationer in the year 1919 and has served the Department since then in various capacities.

He was granted the Bachelor des Honneurs, for 2 years and 4 months in 1928, and he was on deputation for sandal oil work to Japan and China in the year 1930 and in 1937 he went on deputation to Europe on behalf of the spun silk mills when he had the opportunity of comparative study of silk industry in various capacities.

He was the first manager (part/-time) of the Mysore spun silk mills for sometime and thereafter he became the whole time manager of the mills and continued in this capacity for a period of about 8 years, when he was appointed Special Officer, Silk Expansion Scheme at a critical period when supplies of silk had failed and when the services of an energetic officer possessing organizing capacity were badly needed.

The next senior officer in the Department is Sri M. S. Venkata Rao, B.A., Assistant Superintendent of Sericulture, getting a pay of Rs. 350/- p.m. in grade Rs. 150-20-350. This officer has reached the maximum in the grade on 1st October 1947. It is ascertained that Sri M. S. Venkata Rao has already left for Japan on deputation for 2 months for gaining first hand knowledge of matters relating to Sericulture.

Jenab Shamsuddin Khan is an officer with vast experience of all work of the Department of Sericulture. There are several post war schemes on hand and to put them through his experience and services will be very necessary.

The services of Jenab Shamsuddin Khan are very much in demand from various quarters in India; and in case he is retired now, it might prove a great disadvantage to our Silk Industry when there is yet no other officer of his experience to occupy his place; and when several schemes of importance and magnitude have to be handled very soon as already indicated above.

It is therefore, a matter to be considered at a meeting of Council, whether in the circumstances stated above, it is desirable to retire Jagan Annamalai Khan from the date on which he attains the age of superannuation; or to grant him extension of service for such period as is deemed necessary.
